

INSTRUCTION SETS FOR STRANGERS

Phase 1: Preliminary Research

Major Interface Studio
Fall 2011

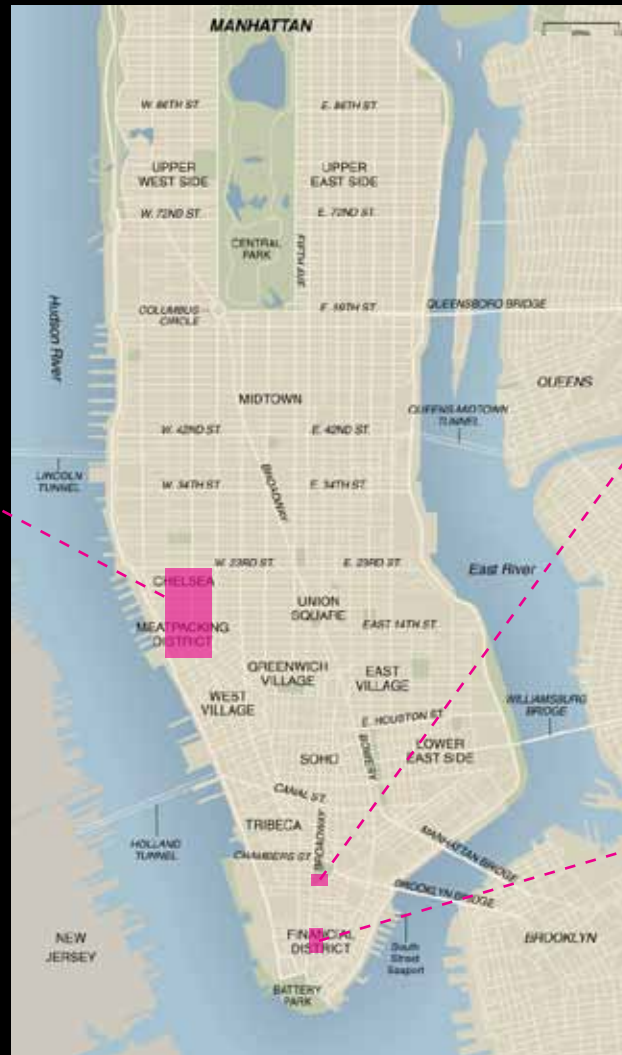

GROUP
Hazel M. Bala
Nicole Del Senno
Ashley Muller

PUBLIC SPACE OPTIONS

3) The High Line

Meatpacking District
529 West 20th Street

1) City Hall Park

City Hall Downtown
131 Duane Street

2) Helmsley Plaza

Financial District
Across from Zucotti Park

City Hall Downtown 131 Duane Street

- Created in 1812, this park provides a much needed green spot in a bustling downtown area.
- Occupied by employees in City Hall + Financial District during lunchtime as well as tourist.
- Art installation pieces featured.
- Equipped with a fountain as main focal point.

(Actual images taken at 6:45 pm, Tuesday)

Financial District Helmsley Plaza

- Across the street Zucotti Park is currently a setting for “Occupy Wall Street” protest which began on Sept. 17th 2011.

-Features Isamu Naguchi’s Red Cube, installed in 1968.

(Actual images taken at 7:20 pm, Tuesday)

The High Line

529 West 20th

- 1.45-mile-long structure built in the 1930s to carry freight trains from the Meatpacking District, through West Chelsea, and ends at 34th Street.
- Completed in 2009, basically repurposed an old rail way into an urban park.
- Low crime rate compared to other parks due to the attention.
- Bleacher area or Chelsea Market Public Art (sheltered area under a building).

(Actual images taken at 7:50 pm, Tuesday)

